Episode Description

Owning gold has transcended time and remains a timeless practice.

Today, it is seen as a hedge against inflation.

But how do we own gold today, where do we store it and how do we trade it?

Plus, how do we decipher the authenticity of gold?

We find out more from Victor Foo, Chief Executive Officer & Founder, Singapore Precious Metals Exchange (SGPMX) - a private platform that allows investors to buy, store and trade metals such as gold from anywhere in the world.

Presented by Ryan Huang
